If you use this document for your own work please cite the Inventing Adulthoods study (http://www.lsbu.ac.uk/inventingadulthoods)

Inventing Adulthoods: Case Profile Analysis

ID No. 'Pseudonym'

Fieldnotes Interview 4

Summary Information

Phase and Date	Interview 1 date (If applicable)	Interview 2 date	Interview 3 date	Interview 4 date Phone int.
Age
Location of Int
Home
Education
Work/Training
Relationships
Self
Future Plans
Interviewer

Abstract - prose covering themes, relationships, family, work, education - catch all

Self presentation/appearance - changing over each round

Section A Methodological Issues:
Interviewer Predictions - changing over each round and whether realised

Research process - interesting issues including those relating to foresight and hindsight arising in process of analysis (each round)

Section B Analytic:
Resources - changing over each round

Adulthood and identity - changing over each round

Policy issues and citizenship - changing over each round

Section C Research Questions:

a. What accounts do young people give of adulthood (Locality)

b. Resources - social, cultural, emotional, other

c. Critical moments

d. Biography and social processes - Continuities and changes

Section D Key motifs:
Characterisation - including key quotes, type of narratives, type of character